

AWNINGS...The Original Air Conditioner!

And still the most energy efficient way for keeping your home cooler outside and inside

That is why there has been a massive growth in the awning industry with many new and internet-based companies bidding for you business. Many companies believe being the lowest cost provider gains sales, while we prefer to offer the best value. The difference in the value offered is less in price and greater in quality than you may think.

To ensure long-term satisfaction, it is important to select the proper combination of retractable awning components, fabric, motors and manufacturer

Key Facts to Consider

What is the origin of your awning?

For generation, Europeans have enjoyed awnings to expand their living space. MacDonald Awning & Shade Products and their dealers use components engineered in Germany due to their long manufacturing history. Awning components are regulated within Europe and are required to carry a CE certification ensuring quality and longevity of the awning!

What fabric are you purchasing?

Fabric is a big consideration when purchasing an awning. It determines the look and atmosphere that you wish to develop in your outdoor living space.

Sunbrella is the leader in 100% solution dyed acrylic fabric for awnings in North America. Other companies claim to have the same characteristics and warranty as Sunbrella but Sunbrella is the #1 selling fabric in North America.

What motor are you purchasing?

For three decades Somfy has been engineering remote control tubular motors for retractable awnings and exterior/interior shade products. Although there are many manufacturers of remote control tubular motors, Somfy is the industry leader because of the longevity of the motors and controls! MacDonald Awning and their dealers use Somfy for quality and ease of use!

Who are you purchasing from?

The reputation of the company selling and installing your awning is equally important as the other factors.

Their commitment and participation in their community demonstrate their longevity. A long list of customers and repeat business are a great indicator of service and quality.

Memberships in various associations provides confidence that you are dealing with an engaged business that is there to satisfy your needs. Google reviews are a great indicator of the type of business you are dealing with.

Your space is unique...your awning should be as well! MacDonald Awning custom manufactures every awning. We do not serve the DIY market. Quality components and workmanship are the mainstay at MacDonald Awning and their extensive authorized dealer network.
